The construction of a large shelter was begun in the early part of June 1950 near the village of Zrnovnica, approximately ten to fifteen kilometers east of Split on the Imotski road. The shelter will be located in the mountain above Zrnovnica on top of which is the church of Saint Paul. A military workers' battalion with a strength of about five hundred men is employed in the construction work. Approach to the construction site by unauthorized persons is strictly forbidden.
